

Jane Brucker Studio

Installation view of Jane Brucker's Fragile Thoughts at Forest Lawn. Photography by James Fishburne.

Celebrating Stained Glass: An Evening with the Art of Judson Studios

FOREST LAWN MUSEUM RECEPTION

Saturday, August 21, 2021

5:00 - 7:00 P.M. PDT

1712 South Glendale Avenue, Glendale, CA 91205

Celebrate with Forest Lawn Museum for art, refreshments, and discussion. The evening will include free exhibition tours, complimentary drinks and hors d'oeuvres, and a Q&A with David Judson (President of Judson Studios) and artist Jane Brucker, led by Museum Director James Fishburne.

R.S.V.P. by August 16, 2021 • museum@forestlawn.com or 323-340-4782 • Parking is always free.

The event is held in conjunction with Forest Lawn Museum's current exhibition, Judson Studios: Stained Glass from Gothic to Street Style, which runs through September 12, 2021. Founded in Los Angeles in 1897, Judson Studios is the oldest family-run stained glass studio in America. The exhibition includes nearly 100 original stained glass artworks, preparatory drawings, watercolors, and archival photographs as well as collaborations with contemporary artists that redefine traditional stained glass. Jane Brucker's installation, Fragile Thoughts (pictured above), is part of the exhibition.

R . S . V . P . ▶

Copyright © 2021 Jane Brucker Studio, All rights reserved.